

A Proclamation
By
Governor Ronnie Musgrove

WHEREAS, students-athletes who find the balance between academics and athletics use these fundamental skills to become leaders in business, community, education and government; and

WHEREAS, student participation in athletic activities fosters teamwork, self-discipline and perseverance, values that guide their development as productive and caring members of their communities; and

WHEREAS, the Wendy's High School Heisman Program was created to recognize high school seniors who exhibit excellence in academics, athletics and community service; and

WHEREAS, the Wendy's High School Heisman Program contributes to the continued success of the young people of this State by acknowledging their dedication, determination and desire to succeed:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ronnie Musgrove, Governor of the State of Mississippi, hereby proclaim December 15, 2002, as in the State of Mississippi and encourage all Mississippians to recognize the many accomplishments of our citizen-student-athletes.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Mississippi to be affixed.

DONE in the City of Jackson, December 4, 2002, in the two hundred and twenty-sixth year of the United States of America.

RONNIE MUSGROVE
