Hey Y'all,=20

First, wanna thank all of y'all who came out last night for Mississippi = Vibes. We realize that we have been gone away for a while and it's = taking a minuet for all of us to get back into the groove. However, the = vibe for the first four nights back have been really strong. Thanks to = all the poets and listeners who came and hung. Hope to see y'all next = Saturday for Mississippi Vibes Open Mic Poetry Night at 7 All Arts Cafe, = located at McWillie Drive of I-55 and Northside Drive. Also visit 7 = throughout the week for Wednesday night Hip Hop night, Thursday night =
Jazzoetry, and Friday night Reggae night.=20

Also, congratulations to Shawn White for her very successful book = release and reading. Shawn is a local poet who got her start at the = Mississippi Vibes readings. Now, she has her first book and is courting = a deal with a couple of publishers. We will keep you posted. For her = reading she had a packed house, and poets David Brian Williams and Cyrus = Webb got things heated up before Shawn did her thing. We used to call =
Shawn quiet thunder, but now she's making a loud noise with her work.=20

The Malcolm X Center for Self-Determination will hold a Community =
Speakout. This will be an analysis and discussion of the tragic = September 11th attack. The focus will be how these events impact the = present and future of the Afrikan (Black) community in America. The = Community Speakout will be Tuesday, September 18th, at 7:00 p.m. at the = Malcolm X Center for Self-Determination located at 1823 Martin Luther = King Drive. Your input and ideas are sorely needed as the implications = of these attacks and the aftermath will dictate the course of our lives. =

For more information, please call (601) 316-7166.

On Wednesday, September 26, 2001, the Community Kwanzaa Celebration = Committee and Afrikan Dieli Bookstore (923-B J.R. Lynch) will be jointly = sponsoring the monthly Black History Forum to be held in Johnson = Hall/Upward Bound Offices of Jackson State University from 6:00 p.m. - = 8:00 p.m. This month's topic is "The History and Role of Our HBCUs in = Our Human and Civil Rights Struggle." For additional information, please = contact Brother Asinia Lukata Chikuyu at 979-2464 or 957-2969 or Uzoma =
Miller at Afrikan Dieli Bookstore, 238-2013.

We know that a lot of you missed Jolivette Anderson, The Poet Warrior, = last night. She is in Washington, DC and doing well. Her September = schedule is full as she will be presenting her poetry, lecturing and = coordinating workshops across the country and here in Mississippi. Her = September schedule is as follows:=20

Jolivette Anderson "The Poet Warrior" will perform at Black Love Fest = 2001 in Washington DC before Dead Prez and at Bar None's The Movement as = the featured poet, on September 16 at the Malcolm X "Meridian Hill = Park", located at 16th Street NW & Euclid Ave, from 11:30 am to 7:00 = p.m. For more information call (202) 756-4101 x 2506. The festival is = free and open to the public. On September 17 she will be with Bar None's =
The Movement at 1326 'U' Street NW, beginning at 10:00 p.m. On September = 18, she will be at Mangos, located at 14th and 'V' Street NW, beginning = at 9:00 p.m. Jolivette will be back in Jackson, Mississippi performing = at the Farish Street Heritage Festival on September 22 at 6:00 p.m. in = the historic Alamo Theater as opening act for jazz artist Rhonda = Richmond. Richmond's CD, Oshogbo Town is the first release on Cassandra =
Wilson's new lable. Visit www.jazztrance.com for more info about Rhonda =
Richmond's project.
