

Psalm 37:9

For evildoers shall be cut off;
But those who wait on the Lord,
They shall inherit the earth.

Evildoers who refuse to repent and turn to Christ shall be cut off from the earth. They are dooming themselves from living anymore good life. They will live, but it will be a tormented life. God will cut them off from His plans to bring this thing called life back on course. They will be cut off when He brings order out of this chaos.

It really pays to wait on the Lord. The ultimate benefit of waiting on the Lord is inheriting the earth when He brings order to the chaos by putting life back on the good track. Listen to me. I am tempted sometimes to stop believing in the Lord, especially in the things of the Lord, things like church, church people, church things, etc., etc.. These are dark moments for me and my faith. I have stood and waited on the Lord during such times. In the end He always comes through with a fresh new revelation of Himself to me. I know eternal life will be one such revelation only better. It pays to wait. Don't act on those fleshly inclinations. They usually mislead us.
