Psalm 37:39

But the salvation of the righteous is from the Lord;
He is their strength in the time of trouble.=20

I'm glad my salvation comes from the Lord and not myself! I'd be in = trouble if I had to face my sins! Thank God that He is my strength in = this time of trouble! Judgment is always a time of trouble, even for the = righteous. See, even the righteousness of the righteous is as filthy = rags in God's sight, because He is so holy. We strive to be like Him, = but we're still tainted enough to be in constant need of His atoning = blood covering our sins. This blood bath is how He saves us. He paid the = price of death for our sins. Hence, this is how salvation is from the = Lord. Not only this, but we don't even know how to do something as = simple as pray for ourselves (Romans 8:26). It takes the Spirit helping = us with our very first step into the kingdom of God and with all the = steps thereafter. This is where a lot of us get into trouble, by = thinking we will make steps in the kingdom on our own strength. Not so. =

He has to show us how and then help us do it every step of the way. I'm = so glad He loves us like a true Father.=20
