Psalm 41:1

Blessed is he who considers the poor;
The Lord will deliver him in time of trouble.=20

Trouble. Trouble comes to us all. We bring most of our troubles on = ourselves. Sometimes it is not what we deserve. I don't know of anyone = who is immune to trouble. In time of trouble it is a comfort to know = that the Lord is there to deliver us from it or at least walk us through =

it. We find a promise from God in this passage that if we consider the = poor by reaching out to them and helping them when we can, God will = reach out and help us when we need Him.=20

You want to be blessed in life? Consider the poor around you and God = will bless you. Let us make it a point to hunt down the poor and help = them when we can. By making it a priority to give to the poor on a = regular basis you will be depleted when the begging moochers, who think = the world owes them handouts so they won't have to work, come knocking = at your door. Let them know, with a smile on your face, that you just = gave to a poor soul all you could spare.=20

Bo Sullivan
