FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

GOVERNOR'S JOB FAIR TRAVELS TO GREENWOOD

JACKSON, Miss., - The Governor's Job Fair Network of Mississippi will present the LeFlore Area Job Fair on Tuesday, May 6, 2003 from 9:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m. at the LeFlore County Civic Center, located in Greenwood. Admission is free to the public.

"We are working aggressively on bringing employers and potential employees together at these fair," said Governor Ronnie Musgrove. "We are fighting for every possible job during a national recession, and the job fair is a great opportunity for employers to tap into a strong and able workforce."

"Nissan will be participating in all the job fairs we are hosting throughout the state and we're pleased to have their continued attendance," said Joe Buckner, event organizer.

The Governor's Job Fair Network is a partnership between Governor Ronnie Musgrove's office, the Mississippi Development Authority, and the Mississippi Employment Security Commission. Events are scheduled in various communities around the state throughout the year.

During the 2001-2002 year, the Governor's Job Fair Network presented 12 statewide events with over 525 employers and institutions, over 15,000 persons attended. A total of 4,500 job offers were extended on the days of these events.

For more information, contact Joe Buckner at 601.961.7507 or Frank Riley at 601.961.7454. Or visit the Governor's Job Fair Network online at www.jobfairs.ms.gov.
