Governor Musgrove Proclaims “Day of Service” In Mississippi

Jackson, MS – Governor Ronnie Musgrove has issued a proclamation naming Thursday, December 6, 2001, as a “Day of Service” in Mississippi, in support of the AARP’s call for volunteer service to others.

“The spirit of volunteerism and helping those less fortunate is part of the foundation of our nation,” said Musgrove. “I encourage all Mississippians to join the AARP in this effort to give back to their communities during this holiday season.”

AARP is calling on its employees, 35 million members, and all Americans to take part in the Day of Service. For more information, call the local AARP office at 371-3390.
