Governor Musgrove Names Martha Dalrymple To Commission on Environmental Quality

Jackson, MS – Governor Ronnie Musgrove has named Martha Dowd Dalrymple of Amory to the Mississippi Commission on Environmental Quality. Her term will run through July 1, 2008.

“Martha Dalrymple brings great experience and insight to this position,” Musgrove said. “She has demonstrated her commitment to the environment in Mississippi through her work over the years.”

Dalrymple currently serves as President and Partner in Splunge Timber Corporation in Amory. Her professional affiliations include the Amory Chamber of Commerce, Ducks Unlimited, Mississippi Fish and Wildlife Foundation, Mississippi Land Trust, Mississippi Outfitters Association, Mississippi Wildlife Federation, and the Monroe County Forestry Association.

In 2001, Dalrymple received the Wildlife Conservationist of the Year Award from the Mississippi Association of Conservation Districts.
