Governor Appoints J. David Marsh to the Mississippi State Board of Community and Junior Colleges

Jackson, MS – Governor Ronnie Musgrove has appointed J. David Marsh of Jackson, Mississippi, as a member of the Mississippi State Board of Community and Junior Colleges for a six-year term beginning July 1, 2001, and ending June 30, 2007. Marsh will represent the Fourth Congressional District on the board.

“David Marsh has demonstrated his commitment to education and will be a tremendous asset on the board,” Musgrove said. “I appreciate his willingness to serve, and I know he will work hard for Mississippi’s community and junior colleges.”

A 1973 graduate of Millsaps College, Marsh is President of Benchmark Construction Corporation. He has served on the Boards of Directors for First Commercial Bank, St. Andrew’s Episcopal School, River Oaks Hospital, Else School of Management at Millsaps College, YMCA and Willowood Developmental Center.
