

For Immediate Release
September 24, 2001

Contact: John Sewell
601-359-2916

Jackson, MS – Governor Ronnie Musgrove today made the following statement regarding the resignation of J. C. Burns from the Mississippi Development Authority:

“J. C. was one of the first appointments I made in my administration, and he has served the people of this state well. He has played a pivotal role in our economic development successes, including the Nissan project last year. I appreciate the work he has done and wish him well in his new endeavors.”