Governor Musgrove Appoints Winston Kidd To Circuit Court Bench

Jackson, MS – Governor Ronnie Musgrove has appointed Winston L. Kidd of Jackson as the Circuit Court Judge for Hinds County. Kidd will replace Judge James E. Graves, Jr., who was appointed to the Mississippi Supreme Court on October 29, 2001.

“The courtroom is a place where fairness and balance serve as the foundation for justice,” Musgrove said. “Winston Kidd will provide that foundation for the Circuit Court in Hinds County.”

Kidd has worked as an attorney in private practice for Walker & Walker, PLLC, since 1992. Kidd earned a bachelor’s of science degree from the University of Mississippi in respiratory therapy, graduating cum laude and with the Most Outstanding Respiratory Therapy Student Award. He received his law degree from Mississippi College Law School in 1991, and was admitted to the Mississippi Bar the same year. An active community volunteer, Kidd is involved in the Magnolia Bar Association, the National Bar Association, and regularly speaks to students in area schools and churches.

Kidd and his wife, Adriane Dorsey-Kidd, are expecting their first child in November.
