

For Immediate Release

January 30, 2002

Contact: John Sewell

601-359-2916

Jackson, MS – Governor Ronnie Musgrove released the following statement today in response to the action of the House Public Health and Welfare Committee:

“This is part of the process, and I’m glad to see things moving along. I want to work together with the Legislature toward a solution to the Medicaid shortfall. I’ve offered a plan, and I believe we can make this work without additional cuts to Medicaid.”