Governor Musgrove Conducting Business in Tokyo

Governor Ronnie Musgrove completed a full day of meetings on Monday in Tokyo, beginning the day with a briefing at the United States Embassy. Musgrove was scheduled to meet with Ambassador Howard Baker, Deputy Chief John Christensen, Minister-Counselor for Commercial Affairs Alan Turley, Financial Attaché Robert Dohner, and Minister-Counselor for Economic Affairs Michael Michalak.

Following the meeting at the Embassy, Musgrove visited the Nissan Gallery and the Nissan Technical Centre, where he toured the facility and met with Nissan officials. Musgrove ended the day at a dinner with Nissan President and CEO Carlos Ghosn and senior Nissan officials.

Musgrove is in Japan on an economic development mission with Mississippi Development Authority Executive Director Bob Rohrlack.

(Note: Japan is 14 hours ahead of Jackson).
