Governor Musgrove Installed as Chairman of Southern Growth Policies Board

(Jackson, MS) – Governor Ronnie Musgrove was installed today as chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board during the final day of the Board’s annual conference in Hilton Head, South Carolina. Musgrove, who has served as chairman-elect for the past year, replaced Governor Jim Hodges of South Carolina.

“I have enjoyed working with my fellow governors on the Southern Growth Policies Board, and I’m looking forward to continuing that work as chairman,” Musgrove said. “There is so much potential in the southern states region and we’re working hard to make it a reality.”

The Southern Growth Policies Board focuses on the economic development of the southern states and the improvement of its quality of life, with emphasis on technology and innovation, globalization, communities and workforce.
