Governor Musgrove Appoints William P. Tompkins, Jr., to Mississippi State Board of Architecture

(Jackson, MS) – Governor Ronnie Musgrove has named William P. Tompkins, Jr., of Jackson to the Mississippi State Board of Architecture. Tompkins will serve a five year term ending June 1, 2007.

“William Tompkins’ broad range of experience in architecture will be well used in this position, and I appreciate his willingness to serve,” Musgrove said.

Tompkins is a founder and managing partner with Tompkins Barron, PLLC. He holds degrees in architecture and architectural technology from Mississippi State University and the University of Southern Mississippi, respectively. He is a registered architect in Mississippi, Florida, Tennessee and Texas.

Tompkins is affiliated with the American Institute of Architects, the National Council of Architecture Registration Board, and the Society of Marketing Professional Services. Locally, he is active in the Madison Chamber of Commerce and the Mississippi Education Forum. He attends Christ United Methodist Church.
