Governor Musgrove Appoints H. Dale Abadie to Mississippi State Board of Psychology

(Jackson, MS) – Governor Ronnie Musgrove has appointed H. Dale Abadie of Oxford to the Mississippi State Board of Psychology to fill a term ending July 1, 2007. Abadie will fill the lay member position on the board.

“Dale Abadie brings experience and a unique perspective to the board, and I appreciate his willingness to serve,” Musgrove said.

Abadie is Dean of the College of Liberal Arts at the University of Mississippi. He received his undergraduate degree from Loyola University in New Orleans, and his masters at Louisiana State University. He earned his doctoral degree in history at the University of California at Los Angeles. His writings have been widely published, and he is widely-sought as a presenter.

Abadie and his wife have three children.
