Governor Musgrove Appoints Cathye Ross to Mississippi Arts Commission

(Jackson, MS) – Governor Ronnie Musgrove has appointed Cathye Ross of Ocean Springs to the Mississippi Arts Commission. She will serve for the unexpired term ending August 15, 2008.

“Ms. Ross has more than 20 years of experience in marketing, training and development, and customer service,” said Musgrove. “She will be a valuable asset to the Arts Commission as it continues to encourage the participation and appreciation of the performing, visual, and literary arts in the state.”

Ross is currently the Vice President of Marketing Operations at the Grand Casino in Biloxi and she received her Bachelor’s degree from the University of Southern Mississippi. She is the Vice President of Marketing for the Biloxi Chamber Executive Committee, on the Leadership Board for the Boys & Girls Club, selected as one of Mississippi’s 50 Leading Business Women of 2003 by the Mississippi Business Journal, a member of the 2002-2003 Leadership Gulf Coast class, and a member of the Heritage and Cultural Committee for the MS Gulf Coast.
