Governor Musgrove Appoints Diane S. Day to the Mississippi State Board of Public Accountancy

(Jackson, MS) – Governor Ronnie Musgrove has appointed Diane S. Day of Canton to the Mississippi State Board of Public Accountancy. She will be representing the state at large for a five-year term ending December 31, 2007.

“Ms. Day will enhance the Mississippi State Board of Public Accountancy with her experience and knowledge,” said Musgrove. “She will fulfill her position well as she serves.”

Day is currently a Certified Public Accountant and owns Day, CPA and First Option, both in Canton. She is also Director of Research and Planning at the Mississippi State Board of Community and Junior Colleges in Jackson.
