Governor Musgrove Appoints Dr. John Nelson to the Emergency Medical Advisory Council

(Jackson, MS) – Governor Ronnie Musgrove has appointed Dr. John Nelson of Hattiesburg to the Emergency Medical Advisory Council. He will be representing the Mississippi Chapter of American College of Emergency Physicians for the unexpired term ending June 30, 2006.

“Dr. Nelson will be an asset with his wealth of skill and knowledge he brings to the Emergency Medical Advisory Council,” said Musgrove. “He will serve the council well, and I appreciate his willingness to accept the appointment to the Council.”

Nelson is currently president of the South Mississippi Emergency Physicians, PA.
