Governor Musgrove Appoints Dykes Cupstid to Grand Gulf Military Monument Commission

(Jackson, MS) – Governor Ronnie Musgrove has appointed Dykes Cupstid of Port Gibson to the Grand Gulf Military Monument Commission for the unexpired term ending June 15, 2008.

“Mr. Cupstid has over 30 years of experience in the nuclear engineering field and is already an active participant in the operation of the Grand Gulf Military Monument,” said Musgrove. “He will definitely be an integral part of the commission.”

Cupstid has been employed with the Entergy Corporation at Grand Gulf Nuclear Station for 31 years. He graduated from Mississippi State University in 1972 with a Bachelor of Science in Nuclear Engineering. Cupstid is active in the management and operation of Grand Gulf Military Monument, a board member at Claiborne Educational Foundation School, a deacon at Port Gibson Baptist Church and a member of the Port Gibson Heritage singers promoting racial unity through gospel music.

The Grand Gulf Military Monument Commission serves as an advisory review board for grant applications submitted to the National Historical Publications and Records Commission
