

A Proclamation
By
Governor Ronnie Musgrove

WHEREAS, the Mississippi Young Bankers section of the Mississippi Bankers Association sponsors the Personal Economics Program to address the need for economic and financial education in Mississippi; and

WHEREAS, the Personal Economics Program had helped bankers serve their communities by fostering strong ties between banking and education; and

WHEREAS, Mississippi's bankers spend countless hours each year educating Mississippi schoolchildren and other consumers about banking and finance; and

WHEREAS, the banker members of the Mississippi Young Bankers section provide vital information reaching more than 126,000 people in 2001 through its continuing education efforts; and

WHEREAS, the Mississippi Bankers Association is joining the American Bankers Association and its Education Foundation in educating Mississippi's schoolchildren about saving during the week of April 15 through April 19, 2002, by making classroom presentations and taking part in the Teach Children to Save program:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ronnie Musgrove, Governor of the State of Mississippi, hereby proclaim April 15 through April 19, 2002, as in the State of Mississippi.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Mississippi to be affixed.

DONE in the City of Jackson, February 21, 2002, in the two hundred and twenty-fifth year of the United States of America.

RONNIE MUSGROVE
