Governor Musgrove Appoints Fred McMurry to the Mississippi Business Finance Corporation

(Jackson, MS) – Governor Ronnie Musgrove has appointed Fred McMurry of Hattiesburg to the Mississippi Business Finance Corporation for the unexpired term ending March 30, 2009.

“Mr. McMurry brings great knowledge and skill to the Mississippi Business Finance Corporation,” said Musgrove. “I appreciate his willingness to serve.”

The Mississippi Business Finance Corporation administers incentive programs to assist businesses in obtaining loans for development and/or expansion. The corporation is a comprehensive financing source, allowing companies locating or expanding in Mississippi to review all financing and incentive alternatives through one contact.

McMurry is currently president and general manager of Havard Pest Control and director of the Hattiesburg branches of the First National Bank of South Mississippi. He is a member of the Mississippi Pest Control Association Advisory Board. McMurry is married to Kimberly Sutton McMurry and they have three children.
