Governor Musgrove Appoints Fred Nabors to the Mississippi State Board of Funeral Services

(Jackson, MS) – Governor Ronnie Musgrove has appointed Fred Nabors of Tupelo to the Mississippi State Board of Funeral Services. He will be the public at large member for the unexpired term ending June 30, 2005.

“Mr. Nabors will contribute to the Mississippi State Board of Funeral Services with his vast experience,” said Musgrove. “I look forward to his service to the public.”

Nabors currently works as a financial planner at MetLife in Tupelo. He is a member of the North East Mississippi Association of Insurance and Financial Advisors and is also an affiliate of the National Association of Securities Dealers. Nabors studied marketing at Mississippi State University.
