Governor Musgrove Appoints Gary L. Honea to the Commercial Mobile Radio Service

(Jackson, MS) – Governor Ronnie Musgrove has appointed Gary L. Honea of Magnolia to the Commercial Mobile Radio Service Board. He will serve as a consumer representing the state at large for a term ending June 30, 2007.

“I know Mr. Honea will enhance the Commercial Mobile Radio Service Board with his ability,” said Musgrove.

Honea currently works as an attorney, realtor, and cattle and timber farmer. He is a member of the Magnolia Lions Club, the Mississippi Trial Lawyers, the Mississippi Cattlemen’s Association, and the Mississippi Forestry Association. Honea attended Southwest Community College and received his bachelor’s degree in business at the University of Mississippi. He also received his Juris Doctor at University of Mississippi.
