Governor Musgrove Appoints George D. Martin to the Water Resources Advisory Council

(Jackson, MS) – Governor Ronnie Musgrove has appointed George D. Martin of Roxie to the Water Resources Advisory Council representing the Fourth Congressional District for a term beginning July 1, 2003, and ending July 1, 2007.

“We are pleased to have George Martin on the Water Resources Advisory Council,” Musgrove said. “His commitment to clean water will benefit the people of Mississippi.”

Martin is presently the owner of Water Well Drilling and Services in Natchez. The Water Resources Advisory Council’s responsibility is to make annual reports and recommendations to the Commission on Environmental quality, the Governor and the Legislature concerning the state’s water quality.
