Governor Musgrove Congratulates Mississippi's James Madison Fellowship Winner

“Dan Roach is one of Mississippi's best and brightest teachers,” Musgrove said. “I congratulate Mr. Roach upon being awarded a James Madison Fellowship.”

James Madison Fellowships support the further study of American history by college graduates who aspire to become teachers of American history, American government, and social studies in the nation's secondary schools, as well as by experienced secondary school teachers of the same subjects. Only 56 fellowships were awarded in 2003. The award is intended to recognize promising and distinguished teachers across the nation.
