Governor Musgrove Appoints John T. Riggs to the Emergency Medical Advisory Council

(Jackson, MS) – Governor Ronnie Musgrove has appointed John T. Riggs of Brookhaven to the Emergency Medical Advisory Council. He will be representing the Emergency Medical Technician, Paramedics position for the unexpired term ending June 30, 2006.

“Mr. Riggs will be a valuable asset to the Emergency Medical Advisory Council,” said Musgrove. “He will successfully fulfill his position.”

Riggs currently works as EMT Paramedic and as a First Responder firefighter. He is employed at Kings Daughters Medical Center in Brookhaven and volunteers at Hench’s Retreat VFD in Brookhaven. Riggs also serves as guest instructor at Copiah-Lincoln Community College.
