Governor Musgrove Appoints Kevin King to Emergency Medical Advisory Council

(Jackson, MS) – Governor Ronnie Musgrove has appointed Kevin King of Terry, Mississippi, to the Emergency Medical Advisory Council for a term ending June 30, 2006. King will represent the EMT/Paramedic position on the council.

“Kevin King has the type of hands-on experience that will enhance the work of the Council, and I appreciate his eagerness and willingness to serve,” Musgrove said. “His commitment to promoting the emergency medical profession will benefit health care around the state.”

King began his career 14 years ago as a volunteer firefighter in Byram. Today he works as a Flight Paramedic on AirCare at the University of Mississippi Medical Center. He serves as volunteer fire chief for the Crossroads Volunteer Fire Department in Hinds County, and as a paramedic for the Hinds County Sheriff’s Office Special Response Team.

King and his wife, Susan, have three children.
