Governor Musgrove Appoints Larry Goings to Mississippi State Workforce Investment Board

(Jackson, MS) – Governor Ronnie Musgrove has appointed Larry Goings of Magnolia to the Mississippi State Workforce Investment Board. He will represent the business executive position for the unexpired term ending April 1, 2007.

“Mr. Goings is a small business owner and an active member in his community,” said Musgrove. “His knowledge and experience will be valuable for the Board as we all work together to provide jobs for Mississippi.”

Goings is the owner of Beltel Communications Ltd., an ordained minister, and a former law enforcement officer. He is a member of Magnolia Lion’s Club, the Magnolia and Brookhaven Chamber of Commerce, Chairman for Pike County Cares Toys and Coats for a Kid, and Co-Chairman and National Leadership Award for Small Business Advisory Council.

The Mississippi State Workforce Investment Board is charged with the development of the State plan that outlines a five-year strategy for the statewide workforce investment system and the continuous improvement of the system.
