Governor Musgrove Appoints Larry Goings to Mississippi State Workforce Investment Board

(Jackson, MS) – Governor Ronnie Musgrove has appointed Larry Goings of Magnolia as a member of the Mississippi State Workforce Investment Board for the unexpired term ending April 1, 2007.

“As a small business owner Mr. Goings knows

Goings is the owner of Beltel Communication, Ltd., in Magnolia. He is actively involved in his community through his support of South Pike School programs, the Magnolia Lions Club, and the Chambers of Commerce for Magnolia, McComb and Brookhaven. He is also an ordained minister with a bachelor’s degree in biblical studies and a master’s in theology.

The Mississippi State Workforce Investment Board is charged with developing a five-year strategy for the statewide workforce investment system, providing the highest quality services to those participating in the workforce investment programs, and making the needed improvements to said system.
