Governor Ronnie Musgrove Appoints Lynn Houston to the Mississippi Educational Television Authority

(Jackson, MS) – Governor Ronnie Musgrove has appointed Lynn Houston of Hattiesburg to the Mississippi Educational Television Authority. She will be representing the teacher or principal in a secondary school system for the unexpired term ending July 1, 2005. Ms. Houston replaces Albert Vaughn.

“I know that Ms. Houston will bring an abundance of knowledge and experience to the Mississippi Educational Television Authority,” said Musgrove. “I am confident she will represent the public well.”

Houston is currently a teacher in the Hattiesburg Public School District and has worked with ETV for 9 years. She currently teaches a class that builds computers for the public schools of Mississippi. Houston studied education at Jones Jr. College and completed her bachelor of science in education at the University of Southern Mississippi. She received her masters in education at Mississippi State University.
