Governor Musgrove Reappoints Lynn C. Patrick to Mississippi Department of Information Technology Services

(Jackson, MS) – Governor Ronnie Musgrove has reappointed Lynn C. Patrick of Diamondhead to the Mississippi Department of Information Technology Services for the unexpired term ending June 30, 2008.

“We are focused on ensuring cost effective government that is responsive to the needs of all Mississippians, and the commitment of citizens like Lynn Patrick will help make our work a reality,” said Musgrove. “I congratulate Ms. Patrick on her appointment to the Department of Information Technology Services.”

The Mississippi Department of Information Technology Services primary responsibility is to assure cost effectiveness in information systems services, equipment acquisition and use for the agencies of the State of Mississippi.

Patrick is currently Assistant Vice-President and Information Technology Auditor for Hancock Bank in Gulfport. She was first appointed by Governor Kirk Fordice to the Board and currently holds the position of Chairman. Patrick graduated from the University of Southern Mississippi with a bachelor of science degree in computer science.
