Governor Musgrove Appoints Mary Ann Bearman to State Board of Nursing

(Jackson, MS) – Governor Ronnie Musgrove has appointed Mary Ann Bearman of Madison to the State Board of Nursing representing a consumer of health services for a four-year term beginning July 1, 2003, and ending July 1, 2007.

“We are focused on ensuring quality health care for all Mississippians, and the commitment of citizens like Mary Ann Bearman will help make our work a reality,” said Musgrove. “I congratulate Mrs. Bearman on her appointment to the Board of Nursing.”

The State Board of Nursing has many responsibilities that include regulating the practice of nursing for the safety of the public, licensing all qualified registered and practical nurses, and providing certification for qualified nurse practitioners.

Bearman is a graduate of Southaven High School and Harding University. She is a member of the Diabetes Foundation of Mississippi and the Junior League of Jackson. Bearman and her husband, Charles Bearman, currently reside in Madison with their two children.
