Governor Musgrove Names Patricia Miller as Chair of State Parole Board

(Jackson, MS) – Governor Ronnie Musgrove has selected Patricia Miller of Bay St. Louis to serve as chair of the State Parole Board. Miller has served as a member of the Parole Board since July 2000, and replaces Donald “Pete” Pope as chair.

“Patricia Miller has the experience and the skills to lead the Parole Board, and I appreciate her willingness to take on this important role,” Musgrove said. “Her service as a state legislator, especially as a member on the House Penitentiary Committee, provides her with tremendous insight into the workings of the correctional system.”

Miller served two terms in the Mississippi House of Representatives, serving constituents in Coahoma, Tunica and DeSoto Counties.
