Governor Musgrove Appoints Ronnie Turner to Mississippi State Workforce Investment Board

(Jackson, MS) – Governor Ronnie Musgrove has appointed Ronnie Turner of Amory to the Mississippi State Workforce Investment Board. He will represent the labor position for the unexpired term ending April 1, 2007.

“Mr. Turner’s experience as an industry worker for over twenty years and his current position as a member of the Three Rivers PD&D Workforce Investment Board will aid him well in his new role as a member of the Mississippi State Workforce Investment Board,” said Musgrove.

Turner is currently employed at True Temper Sports, Inc. He is the President of the Tupelo Central Labor Council, Executive Board Secretary for the Mississippi AFL-CIO, President of the Mississippi Association of Central Labor Councils, a Rapid Response Coordinator, a member of the United Steelworks of America and the King Solomon Masonic Lodge.

The Mississippi State Workforce Investment Board is charged with the development of the State plan that outlines a five-year strategy for the statewide workforce investment system and the continuous improvement of the system.
