Governor Musgrove Appoints Tommy Kline to the Mississippi State Board of Contractors

(Jackson, MS) – Governor Ronnie Musgrove has appointed Tommy Kline of Fulton to the Mississippi State Board of Contractors. He will serve as a plumbing or heating and air conditioning contractor for a five-year term ending May 29, 2007.

“Mr. Kline will contribute to the Mississippi State Board of Contractors with his skill,” said Musgrove. “I know he will serve well in his position.”

Kline is currently President and owner of Kline Heating and Air Conditioning, Incorporated in Fulton. He is part of Associated Builders and Contractors, Incorporated, Mississippi Manufacturer’s Association, and American Society of Heating, Refrigerating and Air-Conditioning. Kline attended Itawamba Community College where he studied business.
