

LifeShare Foundation quote from the Governor:

May 9, 2001

Requested by: Matt Jones, Executive Director

For: LifeShare Foundation brochure

“Your child’s welfare, comfort and happiness are the greatest concern to any parent. We are excited about the new facility provided by the LifeShare Foundation to the Mississippi School for the Blind and the Deaf. This building will give parent’s a greater peace of mind as their child prepares for transition into the school, and the children will be more assured knowing their parents are their for support.”
