

Mississippi hosted Their Majesties, King Juan Carlos I and Queen Sofia of Spain, during an official visit to the Majesty of Spain exhibition. Visitors from Mississippi and surrounding states greeted the King and Queen as they arrived with Governor Musgrove and the First Lady at the State Capitol. The royal visit consisted of a luncheon, a tour of the State Capitol and a reception at the Governor's Mansion.