

Nissan Motor Co., Ltd. officially begins construction on Friday, April 6, 2001, in Canton, Mississippi. Governor Musgrove and Carlos Ghosn, President of Nissan Motors, look over the site map for the $930 million vehicle manufacturing facility. The plant will produce a full-size pickup truck, a full-size sport-utility vehicle and the next generation of Nissan minivan.