

April 2, 2001

Governor Musgrove's quote

Re: IHL College Fair

“Education is my number one priority and must be our state’s top priority. The IHL College Fair is an excellent opportunity to provide assistance to students who are continuing their education and information for students who may be unsure about their college future. Continuing your education is vital to your success in today’s global marketplace.”