

Newton – Unfortunately, this is another example of the administration’s failure to respond to economic hardships. They have done nothing on the economy and have dragged their feet on education. They are ignoring their responsibility. As a result, the town of Newton is suffering terribly. It is crippling the town.

What we have implemented disaster housing program, and can still apply for assistance through the SBA loan program until February 24. more info from amy at MEMA. That’s why I am working hard to bring jobs to our people and fighting for our schools.

Any other place that these people can turn? He will call Amy.
