

Statement regarding DOJ investigation at Oakley and Columbia:
07/14/03

“The safety and well-being of Mississippi’s children is of the utmost importance. The Governor has been briefed on the report. He has full confidence in the Attorney General and the professionals at DHS to ensure that our children are protected.”