

A Proclamation
by
Governor Ronnie Musgrove

WHEREAS, the hope and dreams of the people of this state and nation are nurtured as a direct result of the noteworthy contributions of the dedicated individuals who are employed in the design drafting profession; and

WHEREAS, from making advances in America's space program to creating affordable housing, the more than 500,000 highly skilled professional designers and drafters in this country are involved in numerous expansion and improvement programs to enhance the quality of life for their fellow man; and

WHEREAS, an active voice for this constituency is the American Design Drafting Association (ADDA), which serves as the only membership organization devoted exclusively to the professional designer drafter in all disciplines -- including manufacturing, utilities, constructions, engineering, government and education; and

WHEREAS, Mississippi is pleased to join in celebrating a special week which salutes the men and women working the design drafting profession for their expertise and vision;

Now, therefore, I, Ronnie Musgrove, Governor of the State of Mississippi, hereby proclaim March 13-17, 2000,

DESIGN DRAFTING WEEK

in the State of Mississippi, and do commend this observance to all of our citizens.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Mississippi to be affixed.

DONE in the City of Jackson, February 11, 2000, in the two hundred and twenty-fourth year of the United States of America.

RONNIE MUSGROVE
GOVERNOR

Eric Clark
Secretary of State
