

Statement re: Chris Epps

“Chris Epps is providing the leadership necessary to manage the Department of Corrections. He is doing a tremendous job of improving the efficiency and cost effectiveness of the Department of Corrections, and I am hopeful he will be given the flexibility to do more with the resources provided to the department. I have every confidence in his experience and ability.”