

Statement regarding Ron Chris Foster:

“The appeals process is continuing through the Mississippi Supreme Court and the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals, where the focus is on the issue of mental retardation. The executive order issued by Governor Musgrove on January 6th clearly states the reprieve will remain in effect until all appeals are exhausted.”