

Statement from Governor Ronnie Musgrove:

“The Mississippi Department of Marine Resources is continuing to set the standard for other states to follow when it comes to the preservation of our state’s waterways as well as the Gulf of Mexico. This award is a testament to the tremendous dedication of the DMR staff and their good work for our entire state.”