

From time to time, we are able to offer educational tours to educational institutions, state elected officials and legislators. We have recently received several requests from political candidates for special tours. Due to security and liability concerns, we are not able to grant these requests. Our first order of business is to protect the people of Mississippi and focus on our mission of the Department.