

“The Governor has met today with doctors, local officials and other healthcare providers on the Gulf Coast to work toward a solution. While I do not condone the doctor’s strike, making certain that our people have healthcare is what is important.