

CL and AP question on consideration of someone from within.

“After careful consideration, the Governor selected Peyton because he has demonstrated a commitment to the fiscally conservative approach that this administration has advocated. Peyton’s leadership and the professional staff at the Treasurer’s Office will ensure that the prudent management of the state’s resources will continue.”