Dear Dr. Clark:

With respect to the Proclamation issued by me on September 24, 2002 declaring a State of Emergency in all eighty-two counties to protect citizens from price gouging in connection with Hurricane Isidore, I hereby declare the circumstances justifying the State of Emergency to be at an end and that the State of Emergency is no longer in effect. The Proclamation of a State of Emergency, also issued September 24, 2002, for the three coastal counties and other areas affected by Hurricane Isidore shall remain in effect.

Very truly yours,
